

Public Health in Times of Crisis: Ethical Perspectives

Hosted by SJE, SSME, SCE

Thursday, January 5th at 7:30pm

Marriot New Orleans, 555 Canal Street

Join us for a conversation about structural injustice and bias in public health. This panel of experts in religious ethics will probe the sources of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam for guidance regarding how to prevent and respond to failures in public health following environmental disasters such as Hurricane Katrina in 2005.

Speakers

LuAnn E. White

Director, Center for Applied Environmental Public Health
Tulane School of Public Health and Tropical Medicine

Laurie Zoloth

Professor of Religious Studies
Northwestern University

Aana Marie Vigen

Associate Professor of Christian Social Ethics
Loyola University Chicago

Abdulaziz Sachedina

Professor and Endowed IIIT Chair in Islamic Studies
George Mason University

Reception to Follow

